Reports of the Joint Inspection Unit of interest to the United Nations Development Programme

1. The Joint Inspection Unit (JIU) has prepared eight reports and a note since the last note by the Administrator to the Governing Council on this subject (DP/1992/12/Add.6). Of these, seven are of interest or concern to the United Nations Development Programme (UNDP) and to the Council. They are the subject of this note. Throughout the year, full cooperation was extended to JIU by UNDP, both at headquarters and in the field, as and when necessary, in developing the JIU overall annual work programme, and in the preparation of the individual reports.

3. This report was circulated as a document of the Economic and Social Council at its substantive session in 1992 under the symbol E/1992/21 and E/1992/21/Add.1. UNDP provided substantive comments to JIU and an input to the comments of the Administrative Committee on Coordination (ACC) thereon. The report was submitted for action by the United Nations only, and to other organizations for information.

The report will be submitted for action by the United Nations only, and to other organizations for information.

In light of the ongoing discussions in the General Assembly and the Economic and Social Council concerning the reform and restructuring of the economic and social sectors of the United Nations, including the subject of field representation, UNDP refrained from advancing any specific comments on this report. However, JIU was provided with the views of the Administrator on the overall subject, as already circulated to the Governing Council and subsequently to the Economic and Social Council and the General Assembly.

9. One other report was issued by JIU in 1992.

JIU/REP/92/7 Managing works of art in the United Nations
